97. Eliza Monk who is also an applicant for relief, lives in the same House. Her father was formerly a Lay Clerk in the St. Patrics Cathedral. He is dead and his widow is not the womans Mother

97. but her Stepmother. This young woman is said to have been married to a soldier, who has gone away, and left her with one young child — She like Mrs Gerow is working when she can get it to do, at the Tobacco factory. Both she and Mrs Gerow use the same Stove, and would therefore recommend, that they be allowed between them, 3 tunes Coal, and Mrs Gerow bread.

Husband left her some years ago and went to the States, one little girl living with her, and 2 boys out in the Country. A dirty untidy body; but still really requiring assistance. To have Coal twice and if she should arrange to use the same Stove with Mrs Keating, to let them have a extra allowance.

102. Winnifred Curtis, 107 Sumach St. Husband wife and four young Children Mrs Curtis who appeared to be a particularly nice respectable person, told Visitor that she had been left a Widow some years ago, with a large family, of helpless children. Her first husbands name was Roberts, and he was a cabinet maker by trade. He had been in very bad health for some time before he died, so that at the death she was left very destitute. She married her present husband at Whitby — a labouring man. He has worked hard to support her, chiefly at farm work, thrashing, hay making &c, but since his last job of thrashing out some peas for a Farmer on the Don and Danford Road, he has had no work, and during the last cold "Spell" — had it not been for an old sleigh which they had, and broke up for fire wood, they would have been without any means of keeping themselves warm at all. Everything was beautifully neat and clean in their little Cottage, and Visitor would say that it was a case well deserving of temporary assistance, would therefore recommend that they be allowed Coal once, and bread for a Month, and by that time he may be able to get employment without further assistance.

103. Catharine Dickson ⁊ No 6 Stonecutters lane between Duchess & Britain St Case reported on last year. — Since then, the husband a drunken worthless fellow, has taken himself away altogether. Mrs Dickson has six children, the two eldest girls work with her in the Tobacco Factory. She herself however cannot do very much, as she has a shocking bad leg, which will probably lay her up altogether if it continues to get worse. In consideration of the large family, Visitor recommends her for Coal 3 times and bread for a Month or six weeks.

104. Eliza Shea, on Pine St. second door from Queen St. Times a very snowy wet afternoon on Saturday when Visitor was going his rounds, and one page of his Memorandum book was so blotted with wet, as to make the entry almost illegible. Can only make out something about a wooden leg belonging to the womans husband' — and Visitor has a general recollection of a very wretched cheerless hovel, and some particularly dirty children, believes intended recommending them for Coal.

105. Mary Forster, rear 94 Duchess St. a very decent respectable old woman, whom visitor has great pleasure in recommending as in former years, for Coal 3 times.

106. Eliza McVeigh, 81 George St. Widow old and infirm — and very destitute. Visitor recommends her for Coal three times and bread for a couple of Months — A little Tea would be a very great boon to her just now, as she has been very sick and ailing for the last Month past.

107. Fanny Masters, 84 George St. Husband and five young children — youngest an infant in the arms. The husband works in the Lumber yards, and at any other odd job he can get to do — He has been out of work however now for some weeks, and they are consequently in great want. The wife appears to be a very respectable woman, and so far as Visitor could learn, the husband is steady and most willing to work when he can get it to do, is therefore recommended for Coal Twice & bread for six weeks.

108. Mary Connell, 100 George St. A very wretched case — An old couple — the husband lying ill in bed — No bed Clothes except a few old rags — A miserable dirty hovel, every thing about it as cheerless as possible. Visitor recommends them for Coal 3 times and bread for the winter.

Tuesday 5th January 1869.

110. Mary Doherty, 112 Nelson St. widow, 2 Children, one a daughter now old enough to go to service, the other a boy 10 years old. Mrs Doherty scrubs and washes and has been in steady work all the summer — She has not had anything to do however for some weeks, seems a respectable industrious woman. Recommended for Coal twice.

111. Bridget Burns "75 Caroline St. reported upon so many years, that Visitor need not say much more now. Recommended for Coal 3 times, and for bread for one Month only.

112. Cecelia Conway "75 Caroline St. Another old Case — Coal 3 times, bread 6 weeks.

Both with their families, living in the same house. Each has a husband and each has two young Children — Both families came out from England this summer or rather beginning of the Autumn. Their respective husbands have only had occasional Employment, two three days at a time here, and two or three days at a time somewhere else and they are consequently badly off. They are now both going to obtain (at least trying to) employment on the Toronto and Nipissing R.R. on the Scarborough and Uxbridge section, and if successful will take their families down there in the spring. Even if they get Employment however, the Contractor will not pay them until the end of the first Month. Visitor therefore recommends them for a full allowance of Coal each — but the one supply for both families, as the use the same stove for cooking &c. — also bread for one Month — then the Case to be referred to Visitor again. Visitor called there again to day, and found that the poor man had his Eye taken out, the day before yesterday. He is being attended by Dr Rosenbrugh who performed the operation, rendered necessary he said, by the injured Eye being in such a state, that if left in, it would have destroyed the sight of the other. Under the circumstances as Hunt will not be in a state for work for another week or two, Visitor would recommend them for a second allowance of Coal, say next week, and bread for another Month.

824. Samuel Robertson, 171 University St. Native of Scotland. Presbyt. seems a very respectable Man — Lost his right arm. His wife is very sick, and not expected to live many days, they lost a young child lately and have one alive, a boy about 3 years old. The Revd. Both old Cases on the Books, and but little new to add about them this year. - Mrs McQuiggan, and Mrs Reardon are living in the same House, and Visitor told them that if they would give up one stove, and make use of the same stove for both, he would recommend them for Coal through the winter - In this case they would increase the joint allowance a little - They are both just doing much for themselves. There are two Sisters Mr Quiggins, living together, as well as Mrs Reardon.

840. Ellen Thompson, 10 Duchess St. A lone Widow! and an annual Pensioner. Peddles Fish &c. in the Summer, and lives pretty much upon which she gets from the House in Winter, for excepting a little Tea and Sugar, her wants beyond the Coal and bread are very few. - Recommended for Coal 3 times and Bread for two Months.

841. Winifred Curtis, 46 Duchess St. This case will be found reported upon before when Mrs Curtis was living on Simcoe St.
There is no doubt Visitor believes, that the Husband is so far weak intellect, that he is not capable of real steady work, and consequently his earnings are so uncertain, that in Winter more especially his family are often very badly off. The wife is particularly a nice industrious person who does her best to keep her family respectable - Recommended to be allowed a little Coal only say twice during the Winter.

842. Mary Marrow, 42 Duchess St. Another Widow! but more infirm still than Ellen Thompson, and dependent all the year round upon the Charity of her Neighbours - Recommended for Coal 3 times, bread for the winter, and if Mary could only be allowed a little Tea for Christmas, she would prize it above all things.

843. George Fairbrother, 35 Ontario St. East. Wife and 6 Children - an account of an accident in Currie's foundry which caused bleeding at the Lungs, Visitor believes the Man to be incapable of returning to his own Broker trade at present at all events - His wife has not been employed many days and they have certainly been reduced to great distress and if a little timely assistance be afforded them in the shape of bread and Coal, they may not require further relief.

Her husband kept a small shop on the Corner of Church & Carlton St. and during his time she was comfortable off — She applies herself and this idiot boy, by washing, needlework &c. but in Winter, she cannot get on without assistance — Visitor thinks she is very deserving and would be glad if she were allowed Coal 3 times and Bread, (a small allowance and the boy received) for the Winter.
